Greetings.

After spending some time with the communications plan,
and attempting to put bodies to roles, and locations,
I think we all should - MUST - plan on being in London a day early.
That is, for us to spend Wednesday, Jan. 15, going over the plan, point-by-point.

Vic and I would thus fly over with Matt on Tuesday, Jan. 14. We would meet probably all day Wednesday the 15th. (VIC: do you think we could borrow a space at BM's office? Otherwise, perhaps we'll just make do with a hotel room.)

The reason: to carry out the plan as outlined, including the Visnews activity for PMI, requires bodies, timing, and all knowing who is doing what, when, where, and why.

This can be nailed down a bit more definitively if we are all physically together. Johan, this would be the chance for you to 'walk' through the plan and the reasoning behind it. And for the rest of us to have your experienced perspective.

In the process, certain difficulties/problems/glitches
and unforeseens would come to light and, hopefully,
we can head 'em off at the pass.

I have been 'freed' of other responsibilities, for the duration.

Let me hear from you soonest.

And let the party begin!

Many thanks and cheers
Darienne
